ACADEMY OF MUSIC -The opera of "I Puritani, with Madam Gassier as Elvira, will be performed to night. Messrs. Brignoli and Amodio also appear. To-morrow, "La Traviata," in which Madam Cortes pings her favorite role.

BULL's HEAD .- The report of the cattle market in another column shows a condition of things for drovers a good deal harder than was indicated by the item published yesterday, notwiths anding the foreshadowing which that gave of a very hard market. As that stated, the proportion of cattle sold on Tuesday was not as large as usual, and the weather being unfavorable yesterday, combined with the over supply and the over-much anxiety of drovers not to have their cattle left over unsold, gave buyers an opportunity to name their own terms for the poorest and median grades of bullocks—a vast number of them selling at 628c. net a pound, and still there was a very strong probability at 4 o'clock that all could not be sold.

Business Men's Daily Prayer-Meeting Conven-TION .- There will be a Convention of the Business Men's Union Daily Prayer-Meetings, held in this city, at the Cooper Institute, commencing on Fri-day evening, continuing several days. The sec end annual anniversary meeting of the Fulton street Noonday meeting, being he'd at noon of the same day, in the Dutch Church. The object of the Convention is to unite all interested in daily prayer meetings, from different parts of our land, at one place to exchange views and Christian greetings, and trust ing in God to make this the means of establishing one or more permanent daily prayer-meetings in every city or village throughout our country.

CITY-HALL REPAIRS AND INFASTS' HOME. - AC-TUAL COMMENCEMENT OF OFERATIONS .- Yesterday the centracts for repairing the City-Hall and erecting a new Infants' Home, the former given to Mr. Edward Gridley, and the latter to Mr. Wm. Coulter, were brought back, having been confirmed by the Common Council, to the office of the Street Commissioner, and forthwith signed and handed over to the contractors. The work will, therefore, in both cases, be commenced at once.

A Cool Marriage. - Frank Shiels and Mary Donovan, the former a reckless youth, who has scarcely attained his majority, and the latter a disappointedlooking young lady of about 28, yesterday announced their intention to settle a question of seduction pending at the City Hall Police Court, by undergoing the ceremony of marriage. Frank had been locked up in the Tombs for the past week, persistently avowing his preference of a twenty-year's sojourn in the State Prison to a matrimonial union with the seduced spinster. The ceremony was solemnly performed, but Frank seemed to feel remarkably uneasy, keeping himself a yard's distance away from the bride. After the couple were pronounced "united," Frank seemed to become possessed of an unusual degree of haste, and departed without looking back to see whether his sponse was following. Mary was disconcerted, but succeeded in overtaking her husband. The last that was seen of them was in the dark hall of the City Hall basement, answering the questions of three inquisitive young Irishmen.

CHIRIQUI COUNTERFEITS .- Some very ingenious counterfeits of the Chiriqui nondescripts are abroad. The bogus little monsters are made of heavy composition metal, electro-plated, and have the rough, unfinished exterior and all the rude characteristics of the originals. Antiquaries should be careful how they invest in these curiosities.

HOW A CONTEMPTIBLE CHARACTER GOT FLOGGED. -For some time past a fellow named Thomas, calling himself a sailor, has been in the habit of lounging about the main entrance to Castle Garden and making the acquaintance of young emigrant girls, whom he would entice into the low dens and dance houses in Water and other streets. Thomas was formerly a cook on board of a packet-ship, and, having an extensive acquaintance among sailors, would succeed in getting some information from them concerning any young girls who might be among the passengers on the respective vessels to which they were attached. With such information he would either call for or waylay his victims, and, after gaining their confidence, induce them to accompany him, pretending to convey them to their friends or relatives, or to a place where they might have a good home; but instead, he would convey them to a low dance-house or brothel, where, being plied with liquor or drugged, they would fall victims to the passions of men equally as base as their betrayer. Thomas, it is said, was in the employ of the proprietors of these low places, and was probably well paid by them to carry on such infa mous practices.

Not long ago a benevolent old man named Keefer, the proprieter of a boarding house, discovered what Thomas was about, and remonstrated with him on the course he was pursuing, but received only abuse for his advice. The business of Thomas was reported to the Police, and he was driven away from the vicinity of the Garden. On Tuesday afternoon he made bold to approach the gates, and, having secured a victim, was making off with her when Keefer met him. The old man informed the girl of the character of the man, and succeeded in persuading her to return to the Garden until her friends should call for her. At this interference Thomas became terribly enraged, and poured forth a torrent of abuse, intermingled with oaths and threats, upon Keefer. Patience having ceased to be a virtue in this case with Keefer, he turned upon the other and gave him a tremendous beating, covering him from head to foot with blood, after which the old man went about his business.

Thomas retired to the river, and after washing the blood from his person, returned toward the gate, where he was greeted with a volley of hisses and greans, and laughed at by the crowd. Paying no heed to the jeers, he cautiously approached Keefer from habited and raised his hand to strike the old man, when a by-stander caught him by the arm and diverted the intended blow. In his right hand was found a large knife and in his left a paving stone. The police now interfered and took the wretch in custody, but what disposition was made of him we

A MUSICAL TRIEF.-William Mills, if not a musician, has at least a taste for music, and he also has a desire to gratify that taste in an unlawful manner William saw a target company passing through the streets, headed by a brass band, and became so enamored of their musical strains that he was induced to train in their train, until they arrived at East New-York. One particular instrument, designated by its owner as al" cornet," valued at $35, had special charms in the eyes of the musically misguided William, and he resolved to become possessed of that identical cornet, at all hazards. Accordingly, while Samuel Yurl, its Jenvied owner was shirting a glass of lager, William slipped Samuel's cornet beneath his tattered outer garment, and, in double quick time, marched to a Pawabroker's office. Here his musical tastes experienced a sudden change, and the once-loved instrument, for which he had risked so much, became simply an object on which the accommodating broker would advance him the spondulicks. But before the ring of cash had driven from his ears of the ring the fraudulently-obtained musical instrument. Officer Saymour of the Thirteenth Precinct, followed by the rightful owner of the harmonious brass, entered the shop and arrested the unfortunate William. He was taken before Justice Brenzan, who committed him to the Tombs without leaving him even a cornet to give voice to his mourn-

Six: We take this opportunity entirely to controvert the statement made in several of this months's papers, to the effect that the paper we had stored at No. 51 Ann street was totally destroyed by fire last night.

For the benefit of these who take an interest in our welfare, we would state that our damage was but trifling, and much more than ettirely covered by incornace.

We also avail ourselves of this opportunity to tender our sincere thanks to the Fire Department, and especially to the companies Nos. 5, 3, 3, and 20, for their prompt and efficient efforts to save our property.

GODDARD & BALLARD.

FATAL FALL.—Coroner Jackman held an inquest of Wednesday upon the body of Janes Malay, a native of Ireland, 50 years of age, who was found early in the morning lying dead in the rear yard of house No. 20 Mulberry street, where he resided. The evidence showed that deceased, while intoxicated, on Tuesday night went on top of the house for the purpose of crossing the roof to an adjoining house, and was not seen again after. The supposition is that he accidentally fell off the roof, and the Jury rendered a verdict to that effect. When found his skull was devastfully fractured.

Accidentally Drowned .- An unknown man, ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED,—An unknown man, about 35 years of age, fressed as a stewedore, accidentally fell off a hawer upon which he was sitting, on Wednesday afternoon, at Pier No. 18 East River, into the dock and was drowned. Coroner O'Kerfe held an inquest upon the body at the Dead-Huser, Bellevue Hospital, whither the body was taken. Deceased was 5 feet 8 inches in hight; and had black hair and a black goates.

BOGUS CHECK.—Devlin & Co., clothiers on Broad-way, opposite the Park, were swindled yesterday out of the value of a fine suit of clothing by a man named H. A. Huntzager, who purchased of them a pair of pantaloons and a vest, and tendered in payment therefor a forzed check on the Artisans Bank, for #29 85 signed by A. B. Bast & Co., a firm which is not in exist-ence, Huntzager was committed by Ald. Brady.

HOTEL THIEVES.—Francisco Lesander and Emanuel Canlay, were arrested for steeling two overcosts and a shawl, valued at #20, from the Stevens House, the property of William Benjamin, a merchant at No. 36 Broadway. The accused were both spanlards, and are also clarged with being regular hotel theves. Carlay is suspected of having tobbed the house of Mrs. Bigelow, No. 25 Great Jones street, of clothing. They were both committed to answer.

CHILD FOUND .- On Tuesday evening, a lad, while CHILD FOUND.—On I nessay evening, a law, while stage is through Fifty-fourth street, saw a child lying on the doorstep of the house conter of Seventh avenue. As no one in the house knew saything about it, he conveyed it to the Station-House, when it was at once sent to the Alms-House. It was a fine healthy male child, about 6 weeks old.

FATAL FALL.—Francis Harrison, 77 years old, fell from the top of house No. 56 Gooverneur street, on Tuesday, and was instantly hilled. The deceased formerly resided at No. 37 North Sixth street, Brooklyn.

DECISIONS IN ADMIRALITY ON APPEAL.
Carlos Butterfield agi, John J. Boyd et al.
The libel was filed in this case by Butterfield, the owner of the Mexican steamer liurbide, against the respondents, senters of the ship Mercury, to recover damages consistent by a collision occurring between the two vessels on the third Novembers, 1854, after both vessels had passed the bar outside of Sandy flock. The ship had been towed to see, and the hands were taking in the hawser, which had been east off by the tag a short time before the accident occurred. The steamer had passed the ship as she was going 'hrough the Gedney Channel, and soon after have to for the purpose of sending the pilot and some passengers on board the rug, which was about to return to the city. Shortly after, the vesses came together, nearly broadelie, occasioning much inputy to the steamer. On the trial of the cree, the Court below dynamics the libel. Judge Naison held, on the appeal, that the measurement of the steamer was not such as to recommend her to any very favorable consideration of the Court. Decree of the Court below affirmed.

THE SUIT FOR TARRING AND FRATHERING THE COL-ORED BARDER.
Wm. Mowers ast. Peter Bogardes. W. H. Hunt, Myron Van Deusen, Silas W. Toby, Charles L. Winahel, and A. V. Deuser, Silas W. Toby, Charles L. Winshel, suc A. v. Eting. This case was continued from yesterday. The Court-

Etims.

This case was continued from yesterday. The Courtroum was crowded throughout the day.

The prosecution closed their evidence, the only witness below the plaintif bimself.

Extracted by the properties of the defendants. He said he would be enabled to prove that none of the defendants were the originators or participatus in the affair, but were merely spectators. The trust was that a young man manned Chiefs, whost Mowers said he did not know, was the leader. The defendants merely looked on, and one or two of them had preserved Mowers from further harm.

Pater Bogardus one of the defendants, was called for the defense be testified that he was a member of the Common Council of Hudson City; he had been out of town the day of the occurrence; he was on his way home in the evening, and while crossing the square, he heard a noise, but did not know was it was ween he got in the square he was told that they had "got the nigger"; he then turned back, and did not yo mear the square lift after the affair was ever; he defined ever having any non-versation. On cross-examination the witness stated that he had been informed by some of the crowd that they were going to tar and feather the negre.

Mr. Slishier read part of an affidavit wherein the witness had sworn that he expected to prove that at the time of the court-feather the negro.

Mr. Shelfer read part of an affidavit wherein the witness had sworn that he expected to prove that at the time of the occurrence he was at Caverach, six miles from Hindson. The witness acknowledged having signed the affidavit.

Mr. Terry corroborated the reatimony of the last witness.

Abraham Bogardos, one of the defendants, testified that about sundown he saw the crowd on the Square, and, after finishing is business, he went on the Square, as he neared the crowd, since of them cried out, "Movers was to too take care of his watch," as he got neares the circle, the crowd called for witness; he test heard Mr. Christ address Mowers, saying, "you are brought here to be tarred and feathered for resishing at lancount white piri," the warch, chain a vial, and a bunch of keys, he conclude to Mowers, were hanced to witness, who then went to his own place of business; witness gave the articles to Mr. Barrelson, who teck them to plaintiff honce, writness did not speak to say one in the Square; knew no reason why the articles were given to him, except that he was a friend of Mowers; before going on the Square, witness saw the tar put on the negro: they had got I alf way through when witness with away; he had no conversation with Mowers except when Mowers to did him to take his watch, witness saw Christ, Hammond, Howard, Blake, Allen, and several others.

Mr. Barlow testified that he received the articles alluded to from Mr. Becardos, and gave them to a man in Mowers's employ. Cross-examined—When witness first vect on the Square the ent; when Mowers ran, wittees may have heard some one say, "Kill the nigger."

W. H. Hunt, one of the defendants, testified that he had known paintiff for the last fourteen years at the time of the occurrence he was in his market on the Square, setting some meat for a enatomer; while there saw the crowd gather and heard a bystancer treast." They had got the higger," plaintiff, when ordered to strip, old so himself; the principal men engaged were Christ. Miner, and Hammond; when it was proposed to ride Mowers on a rail, witness remonstrated with the crowd; he did not know saynining of the cause of the transaction till he came to the Square, and he took no part in the afray.

Mr. Toby, another of the defendants, begind that on the night of the occurrence he was going home, when he saw the crowd on the Square, and heard the sharm he did not stay, and did not see the tarning process; withins had been the County Tressurer for about seven years; he took no part in the transaction.

Challes L. Winseld, another of the defendants, knew Mr. Elting and his daughter, who, it was allered, Mowers had seduced. Ex. Judge Dean offered to prove by this wittees the connection between M were and Miss Elting. Mr. Schaffer objected to the Examination resumed Had known Eiting and his family for the last twenty years, witness first as Mowers on the evening in question in his (plaintiffs) shop, he saw a man take Mowers and lead him out; Mowers was then thrown down, and subsequently led up the street; the men who went into Mower's place were Hammond, Miner, and Howard. Mowers was led on the Square; witness acted as a spectator only; the only partille took in the proceeding was to remonstrate with the crowd against putting Mowers on the rail; he desired the crowd to open and let Mowers pass, and they did.

Mr. Benedict restricted that Mr. Elting was in his own store at the time of the occurrence.

The Court then as journed till Thursday.

PRACTICE—SECURITY ON APPEAL.

Lewis Bathbone set Henry M. Morris.

INGRAHAM, J.—The defendant has given the necessary security on appeal and has obtained an order allowing the sureties after justification. He now moves for an order superseding the execution issued before he appealed, and under which a levy had been made.

ing the execution faunce before he appealed, and unner summing the execution faunce before he appealed, and unner summing the section 550 of the code, which prescribes the effect of according on appeal, gives it no other virtue than to stay further proceedings on appeal, gives it no other virtue than to stay further proceedings on the judgment; it discharges or vecates nothing, but merely stops the plantiff where he was at the time of giving the security, leaving him in possession of any rights or security previously obtained. It gives the Court no authority to vacate any proceeding, or residually acquired.

ing him in pease-sion of any rights or security previously obtained. It gives the Court no authority to vacate any proceeding, or release any right previously acquired.

The same practice prevailed under the old system (Blanchard agt. Myers, 9.1. R., 60; Kinney agt. Whitford, 17.J. R., 34), and it was only where the execution was issued within the four days, or while the rule for judgment was being perfected, that the Court could interfece, if the ball were subsequently put in. (Jackson agt. Schamber, 7. Cow. 417). The Revised Strattes directed a stay if the execution was not fully executed, and the Court refused to order the Sheriff to proceed after ball was put in, but they did not vacate the levy. (Delafield agt. Sandford, 5 Hill, 43).

they did not take the evy. (behavior age accessed of the 43). The decision of the General Term of this district in the matter of Berry (16 Barb, 55) settles the question in this Court. It is there held that the security and appeal only stay further proceedings. They do not undo soything already done. They only stay an execution fit is have not issued, so that if the execution were issued and a levy made, the sale was stayed, but the levy was not interfered with. The rule as laid down in these cases may be a hard one to a debtor who has given ample security, but I have no authority to change it. Motion denied.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

"LONG ISLAND PARKS."

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.

Sir: Under the above heading The Thistens of Whitehalay contains a communication, signed B, which, though written in a plausible style, and with an apparent knowledge of facts, is far from correct in its attenuebts.

In the first place, the 1.2% sizes, proposed by the Commissions for the great Brooking Path, are but from there to fair, rather than from five to six, sulfes from the Fulton and Division avenue ferries. The so-called "insurmountable fact," that they are continuous to several commercies amounts to just nothing at all, or we might say, is a very decided advantage, as Mr. Field ship around in his intelligent report.

The reservoir will always be a popular resort, and we think its location in the center of the grouped park avendingle known.

The reservoir will always be a popular resort, and we think its location in the center of the proposed park exceedingly happy.

B.'s comparison of the increase of population in Broadlyn with that in New York, will not had, when the difference in the "lay of the land" is taken into consideration. Everything hitherto has demonstrated the very rapid growth of the "Gity of Charches," directly toward the location of the proposed park and we believe that in a few, ivery few years, it will be found andiciently occurs to accommodate the masses. The means of access are excellent, and will, in all probability, be containly increasing, while the position and elegance of the site cannot be surpassed. There is nothing at Prospect Hill fit to compare with it, in the opinion of one who has long known the City of Brocklyn. A PICEPOCKET ROBS THE COUSTY JUDGE .- On car, had his pecket picked of a gold watch. He did not discover the less until a well-dressed lady next to him get up to go out when the watch dropped on the floor of the car. He arrested her, and gave her in charge of Officer Griffith at the Peck Slip Ferry. She was taken the Friftz Precinct Station House, where she was recognized as Elizabeth Smith, a well-known pick picket. I reterday marring she was brought before Justice Fox, and, at the request of Judge Morris, sentence was snepsided.

ROBBERT AND ESCAPE OF THE THIEF.-Yesterday afference John Quine was detected in the art of shearing a cost belonging to Fakland Smith, from the ship yard of E. F. Williams Greenpoint. He was given in charge of an affect, and taken to Justice Fox's Court. While the officer was temporarily absent from the room Quine made his compethrough a back winton too the yard and over the ferme. Not feeling discussed to wait for the Judge to try him, he disposed of his case himself. He was not recaptured.

Horse Railroads.—At the meeting of the Jersey City Common Council on Thesday night, a perition was re-vived from the Bergen and Jersey City Borse Railroad Company for permission to lay tracks in certain afrects in Jersey City. The pentition was ordered printed, and Thesday evening next was last upon as the time for bearing parties interested. The petitioners sak permission to by single tracks in the following streets: From Hodson street introod Mon somery street. Newskinstwente, to the boundary line. Resuming, down South Second street. Proc. Hodson street in the boundary line. Resuming, down South Second street, Coles, South First to Green, to connect with the proposed ferry at Paronia evenue. Theme through Grove, Wayne, Gegery, York, and Hodson streets to Montagemery, with a branch through South Eighth street, to Usanima street, and from Gove through South Eighth street, to Newark avenue. For the Bergen Point can: From York, through Washington to Grand, and through Grove York, to Gregory, with a centingent privilege of a track in Bright street from Grove to Mill Creek, and, also, a track in Golden street from Grand street to Mill Creek.

As Invortant Verdice,—The Newer's Davy Mercury of yesterday says:

"The suit of the Atlantic Back of New York against the Paterson Manufacturing Company on trial in the Passate Circuit Court, before Judge Ogden, since Wednesdy last, terminated at noon vestorday, in a worder for the paintiffs for the fail amount claimed. This action has settled, seconding to the charge of the Judge, that negatiable paper issued by a corporation for accommodation is, in the hands of a bena-file helder for value, without notice of its peculiar character, which, in this case the President of the Paterson Manufacturing Company losses, as the defendant alway, to a friend in New York, for the accommodation of the latter, the checks of the Company to a very large amount, some $50.60. This paper, made payable to the President's incivitual order and independ by him, was passed for full value to the Atlantic Back in the course of business, and takes by them moustion paper, and that as these checks were made payable at a future day, and the works soc-pranee welved were written across their face, any holder would have had legal notice of their character. The Court cherged the Jury that even little Company had no power to issue the paper, yet, if that fact did not appear upon its face, that checks in the hands of a home did upon the paper.

had to power to issue the paper, yet, if that fact did not appear spen its face, that checks in the hands of a bons fide holder, without actual notice, are good against the Company."

ASSAULT AND ROBBERY IN ELIZABETH.—The Etraducth Journal says that on Threaday morning, about Joycheck, Mr. Theodore S. Cendell, a well-known and highly respected mis-chart, was found lying senseless on the track of the Central Bairroad, near the depot, by the watchman employed at that station. It appears that he left his father's resiliance, in Union street, at about 10 c/clock, for his hours, in Water street, and was not seen again until found as above stated. His pockets were rified, and from the appearance of his clothing it would seem that he had been seized by his collect from belond. Some loose allever was found mear the place where he was lying, and there is not the alluthest doubt that he is the tection of lawless violence. It is not known how much money he had with him, but it is not probable that his assailants were very richly reward of for their orians. At the last account Mr. C. had no, sufficiently recovered to give an account of the coursence.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 21-P M There was less general activity at the Stock Board this morning than has characterized it of late, but in New-York Central the transactions were to considerable extent. With some irregularity, the market was pretty well sustained at the morning Board and between the sessions, but at the Second Board there was considerable disposition to sell, and the pressure of stock on the market resulted in a general decline of | P cept in the list of fancies. There seemed to be no special effort made either to raise or depress the market, it being left mainly to the influences of the natural supply and demand. The bear interest, however, appears to be receiving one new converts, and the Board is more equally diyided between the two factions than it has been since the suspension of the prominent bear houses. The course of foreign exchange, and the renewal of the specie drain, have had considerable influence in bringing about this change, which has been counteracted on the other hand by the very favorable accounts from the traffic of some of the leading railroads. New York Central fluctuated between 81 and 803, closing at 80 bid. The clique which have been operating in this stock lately appear to be quiet at the moment, prepared, however, to go in again in case the market alls off. The statements of a very large business of this road are confirmed from Albany. Every engine and car not in hospital are fully employed. Pastic Mail was heavy, under the formation of the new line, and fell off to S01, with considerable sales. Reading was steady; the tunnage is scarcely up to last week The Western shares did not exhibit much animation, but were fairly sustained until toward the close of the Second Board, when they became heavy. In State stocks the business was small, and the market had a downward tendency. Railroad bonds are very insetive. The closing prices were: Virginia 6s, 944 @943; Missouri 6s, 84] @ 84]; Canton Company, 17] @ 18; Pacific Mail, 801 #801; Cumberland Coal, 131 #14; New-York Central Railroad, 80] @ 802; Erie Railroad, 41 @ 41: Hudson River Railroad, 35; 234; Harlem Railroad, 91 291; Harlem Railroad Preferred, 361 237; Reading Railroad, 41; 244; Mich gan Central Railroad, 461 2461; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Rai road, 6 264; do. In foreign Exchange, there is but little doing, and rates are firm. Sterling is 1001 a 110 for commercial, and 1104 a 1104 for banks and bankers. Franks are 5.15 = 5 124. Cotton is now moving with some freedom at the South, and a moderate supply of bills is expected from that quarter within fifteen or twenty days.

The business of the Sub-Treasury was: Receipts, $361,375 39-for Customs, $200,000; Payments, $351,-191 14: Balance, $5,186,171 44.

fined to this city. The marked feature of the above statement is the large proportion of specie to net de-posits held by the New-Orleans Banks, in round numbers 75 P cent, while in New-York it is about 30 P cent.

The business of the Clearing-House to-day was 2,386,000, which is unusually large. The Cunarder rom Beston to-day took, unless the telegraphic report erroneous, $151,000 in specie, which is unexpectedly large It is now estimated in some quarters that the shipment on Saturday will reach two millions. The coks for subscription to the stock of the Atlantic and Pacific Steamship Company will be opened on Monday, the 3d of October, at noon, at No. 177 West street, corner of Warren street; Messrs, Edwin Croswell. Spencer Kirby, and D. N. Carrington acting as Commissioners. The coupons due on the 1st of Octo-ber next, on the 10 ₱ cent bonds of the Great Western Railroad Company of Illino's, will be redeemed at maturity, at the office of the Company, upon all bonds, the back coupons of which shall have been surrendered, and stock in this Company accopted, therefore, in accordance with the compromise, and the act of incorporation of this Company. The Mercantile Bank will pay, on the 1st day of October next, the interest due on that day on $500,000 bonds of the City of Louisville, issued to the Louisville and Nash-Railroad Company. Holders of the past-due bonds of the City of Milwaukee are requested by Mesers Worth & Bell to call at their office, arrangements baving been made by said city to take up her past-due bonds and coupons. The amount at issue etween the Atlantic Bank of this City and the Pateron Manufacturing Company, alluded to this morning, $4,000, and not $40,000. The Back has obtained adgment in the suit for $5,468 87.

In another column will be found the particulars of a efalcation which has been discovered in the Fulton Bank, of $60,600. This is one of the oldest instituions in the city, and has a surplus of nearly 40 $ cent. We hear, also, a curious story in regard to another bank, which we do not get officially. The Disount Clerk of the bank in question had, it appears, reigned his situation; his resignation had been accepted; s accounts been pronounced all right, and a complimentary vote passed by the Board for his attention his duties, &c. He then stated to the Board that he had a communication to make, as a caution to induce them to watch his successor. He stated that, notwithstanding his accounts were all correct at the time f resignation, he had, in fact, been using the Bills Receivable of the Bank for years as collateral for cans, and employing the funds in the purchase of paper at usurious rates. By this course he had accunulated sufficient property to meet his m derate desires, and, having no further use for the facilities he had enjoyed, he had resigned. The Boston Post thus notices the money market of

"For esteemed bank-borrowers, the market continues to rule cheaper than that of New-Y rk. In State street, any quantity of morey can be had at 6 P ceal and a commission, on the right sort of paper. Tae banks, however, have no difficulty in getting moderate exchange on foreign paper, and we give the bank rates at 6 T 2 cent, with no indisposition to take Boston notes at 6, where the means are ample and the offerings are prime. The demand for credit is steady and considerable, but not pressing. Outside the rates are very irregular upon anything but notes of high repute. Even loans that would be readily necepted by banks, if offered by a sound customer, pay 8 2 P cent in the street, and leans on stock of a fancy kind pay 12 and upward, notwithstanding broad margins and the sale-ableness of the collateral, at some price or other. The large brokers borrow easily at 6 2 T P cent, but do not lend below 12, in the general way. We suppose half a million of dollars could be had in State street, this morning, at 6 P cent or thereabouts, by one class of berrowers, while we have no doubt stall that a quarter of a million, at least, would be readily taken by other people at 2 2 12, within 48 hours—the latter furnishing securities that, if not so fushionable as the "gitt-edged varieties, may not be less valuable in the long run."

The St. Lours Democrat, under date of Friday even. that city:

The St. Louis Democrat, under date of Friday even ing last, remarks:

ing last, remarks:

"The Money market of this city is very quiet. Exchange was scarce and firm at \(\frac{1}{2}\) premium for bankable funds. Currency is in small supply, and, although some houses that have supplies fully equal to their necessities, will not receive it except at \(\frac{1}{2}\) to \(\frac{1}{2}\) to eat discount, others buy freely at \(\frac{1}{2}\), and cannot keep up a supply at that, and sell at \(\frac{1}{2}\) dis. There is only a moderate amount of local paper offering, but as the banks are very free to discount, a closeness continues to prevail."

The Cincinnati Gazette says:

The Cincinnati Gazette says:

"Currency increases very slowly in supply, owing to the sloggishness in the produce markets, and the discount houses are therefore unable to allow any expansion in loans; but, as remarked, the demand from certain classes of borrowers, with whom September is the heaviest month in the second half of the year, is falling off, matters having been to a great extent bridged over into November and December, by which time the country merchants will be able to lequidate the claims that the credit merchants of the city are now carrying. The weather is favorable for corn, and the yield of this important staple, it is now almost certain, will be very large. Hogs will also be realized upon to a considerable extent within the next ninety days, and the market promises to open pretty high, say $5.50 $\psi 100 lb net, so that with corn and hogs, even if farmers abould continue to hold on to their wheat, the West will be able to liquidate a very large proportion of its debts before the lst of January. Tae prospects for a decided improvement in financial and proportion of its debts before the 1st of January. The prospects for a decided improvement in financial and commercial matters are, therefore, altogether favorable. What the wheat crop has failed to accomplish, for the reason test it has been sparingly marketed, corn and hogs, both of which promise to be plenty, will scenre. The farmers of Ohio, Keatneky, Indiana, and Illinois will within the next four months realize over $30,000,000 for hogs alone. The market for Eastern exchange was firm again on Saturday, with a demand fully equal to the supply, but rates were the same as on Friday, viz., 40 a 45 prem. buying, and 50 prem. selling."

The New-Orleans Picayune (money article) of the th, says:
"The discount market moves along steadily, under a good supply of capital and limited offerings of first class paper. All names maturing next Spring are freely placed at 627 % cent, and longer dates at 71281 % cent discount. The Exchange Brokers, however, have cent discount. The Exchange Brokers, however, have been doing a considerable business in sixty and nicety day paper at 5 and 5½ ° cont. Exchange shows continued firmness in all classes of bills, except clear Sterling, which has exhibited some weakness to day. Offerings are still smaller than might have been expected in view of recent transactions in the great staple, but the demand is proportionally limited. We now quote: Clear Sterling bills, 109½ 2109½ Bill of Lading Drafts, 108½ 2108½; Francs, 57.29 25.15 Follows: Sixty day Bills, 1 2½ For ent discount; Sight, 1 2½ P cent premium. One party reports a sale of $20,000, five days sight, at 1-15 discount, which would indicate a slight improvement, but it cannot be considered quotable."

MR. SATTERTHWAITE'S PLAN FOR REORGANIZ-ING THE ERIE RAILROAD.

Mr. Satterthwaite's proposition for reorganizing the Erie Railroad at first sight appears intelligent and sensible; but the main objection to it lies in the utterimprobability of getting the stock and bondholders to consent to it. For example the fourth mortgage bondholders would not be likely to surrender their bonds bearing 7 V cent, secured by a mortgage, and commanding at the present moment the market price of 40 V cent for a stock which, according to Mr. Satterth waite's cetia stock which, according to Mr. Satterth raite's estimate, would start upon the market as a 2½ P cost security, and would, therefore, not be likely to command much over 40 V cent. The surplus profits necessary to make a dividend of 2½ V cent on $12,000,000 of new stock would be more than sufficient to pay the 7 V cent interest on $3,600,000 of fourth mortgage bonds; and whatever arguments might be advanced to prove that the stock would soon command more than 2½ V cent dividends, would be equally applicable tostrengthen the estimation and market value of the fourth ent dividends, would be equally applicable to strengthen the estimation and market value of the fourth mortgages. This class of creditors, feeling themselves supported by a legal lien, will therefore not be likely, of their cwn free will, and without litigation, to exchange their present position for an inferior one, offer-Steamhip Arisons, from Brazos St. Jago. $275,716
